Mr. Eli Gervits, Advocate,
54 Amasger str., Harley Davidson Tower,
Tel Aviv 67214, POB 51406, Israel

Dear Mr. Gervits,

Hereby, with reference to Your letter dated 31.01.2013, regarding the right of Israeli nationals that possess provisional passports, issued by the State of Israel, to visit Republic of Moldova for short periods without entry visa, the General Directorate of Consular Affairs within the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and European Integration of the Republic of Moldova, would like to communicate the following.

We hereby confirm that the holders of the above mentioned travel document are exempted from visa according to the Law No. 200, dated 16.07.2010, on foreigners and the Law No. 151-XVI dated June 8, 2006 on the abolition of visa requirements for nationals of Member states of European Union, United States of America, Canada, Confederation of Switzerland, Norway, the Republic of Iceland and Japan, for a short stay of up to 90 days within a period of six month.

Best regards,

Sergiu GONCERENCO
Head of the General Directorate
