Dear Mr. Goldman,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to seek clarification on a matter that has arisen, and we intend to address it with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs.

In response to your inquiry regarding whether the Travel Document or Provisional Passport holds equivalent status to the National Israeli Passport, this determination relies on the Nationality or Citizenship indicated on the document in question.

Additionally, it is important to note that our visa policy permits visa-free entry exclusively to Israeli Citizens or Nationals with a maximum stay of 59 days. Should the Nationality or Citizenship differ and not be listed among those countries whose nationals can enter the Philippines without a visa, a visa will be required for entry EO 408.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation on this matter.

Best regards,

Consular Section

Dear Sir/Madam,

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to bring your attention to the attached letter and annex regarding an important matter requiring your official review and response.

The attached letter contains an inquiry regarding traveling to the Republic of the Philippines with an Israeli Provisional Passport.

I kindly request your prompt attention to this correspondence and would appreciate it if you could thoroughly review the attached documents. Your official response, preferably in writing, addressing the specific points outlined in the letter, would be greatly appreciated.

Should you require any further clarification or additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at your earliest convenience.

Thank you for your time and attention to this matter. I look forward to receiving your official response.

Yours sincerely,

Mark Goldman
